

‘Dare to dream, and we’ll make it happen’

Thank you for your interest in the award winning Four Seasons Hotel Monaghan.

Offering the ultimate stress-free journey to your perfect wedding day, we have over 30 years of experience, helping our couples plan their perfect wedding. Our wedding team will guide you through every step, tailoring your package from menu choices to centrepieces.

As a family run hotel, we offer an elegant wedding experience. We have a ‘one wedding a day’ guarantee providing you with our undivided attention.

Your wedding consultation is the perfect opportunity to discover the Limewood suite, an elegant private area for your drinks reception. Connected via a leafy walkway to the Seasons Suite. The stunning Seasons Suite is at the heart of the hotel and creates a stunning backdrop to celebrate your special day.

Our award-winning wedding team has been coordinating weddings for over 30 years, and we pride ourselves on experience and meticulous service. We provide unique and personalised weddings. We understand that every wedding is different, individual and personal so we’ve carefully created a selection of elegant wedding packages, tailored to suit your needs that will craft the perfect day for you and your guests.

OUR SUITES

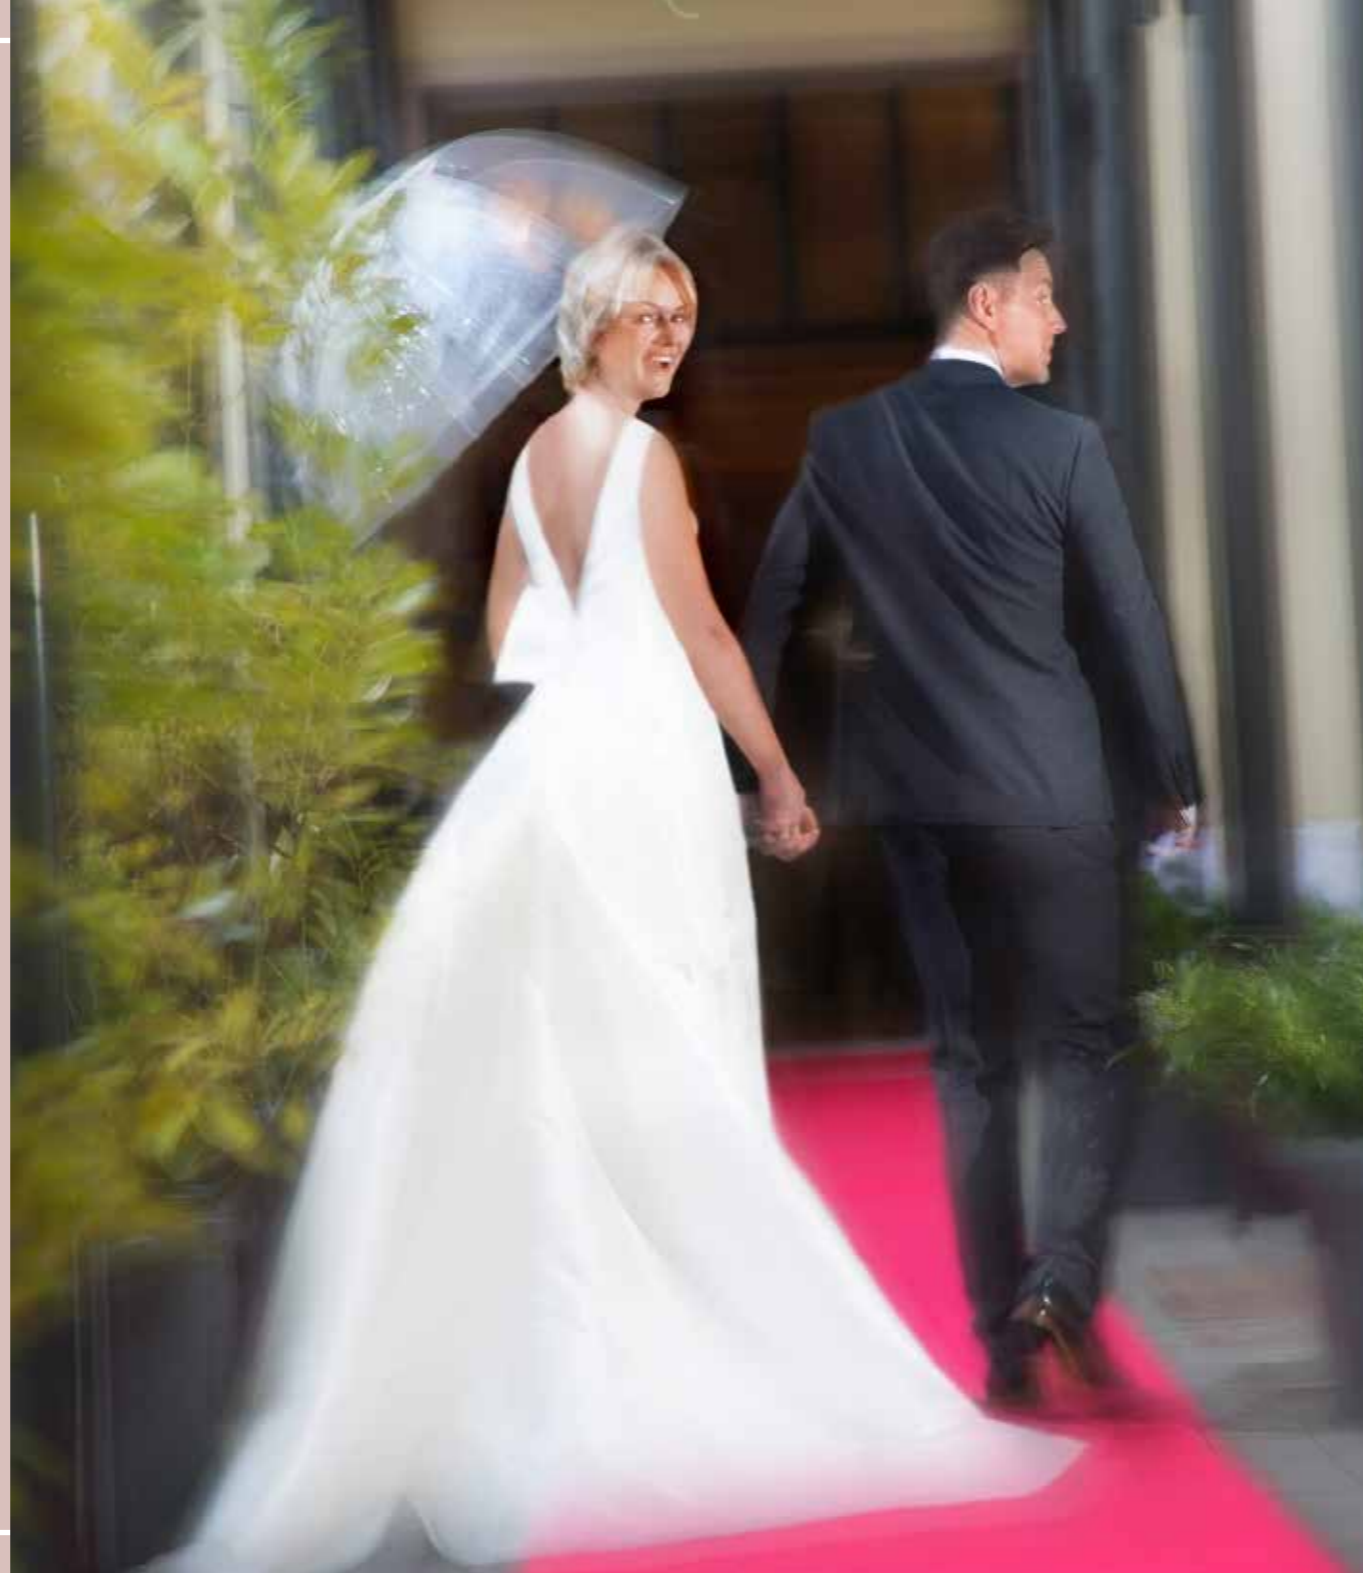

The Limewood Suite

Elegance and sophistication await your guests in the Limewood Suite where dazzling chandeliers are a focal point complemented by our Italian inspired ceiling. The Limewood Suite offers couples a unique setting to celebrate their I Do's. A intimate pre-reception drinks area with your private walkway to the Seasons Suite.

The Seasons Suite

This stunning suite is strikingly elegant. The beautifully rich décor in the Seasons & Limewood Suites brings grandeur to the romance of your special day. This suite is an idyllic location for your wedding celebration and hosts two bars offering flawless service for a larger wedding.

The Suite opens out onto the Four Seasons Conservatory and Courtyard adding that extra touch of glamour where guests can enjoy champagne, cocktails and star gazing in this charming space.
